RE: Duties for Endorsing Process

Chartered Clubs/Organizations (CCOs), County Committee Chairs (Chartering Authority), and Regional Directors all have a part to play in the endorsement process. It is important to know exactly what those responsibilities are. Please see the outline below in order to familiarize yourself with each area of responsibility.

Please inform all of the CCOs in your county of the process and deadlines for chartered clubs to participate.

CCO:

- Affirms that their Club or Organization is currently chartered.
- Changes or adds to their rules or bylaws to contain a provision where only members in good standing as of May 1 are included on the roster, as well as an outline of the process by which the voting representatives are chosen. (See an example of such language below).
- Checks their roster of members 'in good standing' to ensure that those members are registered in California as Democrats within a specific Assembly District.
- Sends roster to their Regional Director and Chartering Authority by the May 15 deadline, using the template provided.

Chartering Authority:

- Certifies the validity of the CCO's charter.
- Affirms that the rules or bylaws of each CCO contains a definition of members in good standing
- Checks that the roster submitted by each CCO has been certified as containing only members who are in good standing as of May 1 by the CCO's President, Secretary, OR Treasurer, and is submitted by May 15.
- Checks the members in good standing are registered as Democrats within a specific Assembly District.

Regional Directors:

- Receives lists from the CCO's President, Secretary, or Treasurer.
- Removes duplicates after Chartering Authority confirms registration and districts of members on roster.
- Checks the registration status of those members of CCOs that are in a district where there is no chartering authority.

- (c) Club members who hold dual club memberships may only be counted for representation once. Such representatives must be registered Democrats. In the event a name is listed on two or more rosters, only one name shall be counted and the Regional Director shall first count the name on the roster of the organization which does not deprive another organization of representation, if possible; provided, however, if that is not possible, the name on the roster which was first turned in will be counted unless the individual is listed as a Representative from another organization, in which case the individual shall be counted only on the roster of the organization sought to be represented.
